RULING NO. 13

In the matter of:)
Jockey)
FRANK ALVARADO)

The appeal of Pacific Racing Association ruling #94, dated March 4, 2004 having been denied, the five day suspension issued to jockey FRANK ALVARADO, which had been stayed by order of the California Horse Racing Board, is now re-imposed as follows:

Jockey FRANK ALVARADO, who rode POTRI BURN in the eighth race on Wednesday, March 3, 2004 at Golden Gate Fields, is suspended five (5) racing days (September 3, 4, 5, 6 and 8, 2004) for altering course without sufficient clearance and causing interference on the backstretch resulting in the disqualification of his mount from first to second. A violation of CHRB rule #1699 (d) & (f) (Riding Rules – careless riding).

The term of this suspension shall not prohibit participation in designated races in California.
